

Routine for IELTS

Morning

- At least 30-1 hours listening English – IELTS test, different sources on YouTube, audio, TED talks, Podcast
- 1 hours + of reading news, magazines, books
- 1 hours Writing some ideas about a specific topic

Afternoon

- 1 hour + to practice speaking
- practice with 1-2 sets of questions in questionnaire

Evening

- [Optional] Attend English training course / Practice English with others.
- Write down/review note what learned in the day.
- Learn new vocabularies with flashcards.

Note

- This is a suggested routine based on what worked for me. Feel free to refer to it if you find it reasonable.
- Sync your routines to suit the IELTS test schedule, as the Speaking part is often held in the afternoon. However, your preferred Speaking time can vary depending on your choice, as it could also be scheduled in the morning.
- Consistently follow routines that suit you for two to three months before the test, and you'll feel calm and comfortable when the actual test takes place.